

PRIME MINISTER

Mr. Tomislav Karamarko,
President of Hrvatska Demokratska Zajednica
Zagreb

Budapest, November 3rd, 2015

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to you as Croatia is facing an historic election this weekend. It is taking place at a time when Europe must face the greatest challenge of the past decade. The current wave of mass migration is not just a threat to our security and stability, but also a threat to European values, culture and identity.

But there is even more at stake this Sunday: the question is whether the Croatian people will be able to reclaim control of their country and govern it according to their own interests, instead of adapting to the disruptive ideas of European socialists and liberal opinion leaders.

Looking back at the past quarter century, Croatia has always been successful when it was led by HDZ. It was almost 16 years ago when I attended the funeral of my friend, President Tudman, one of the greatest statesmen in Croatian history. Now, at a time when change is desperately needed, I see another great man at the helm: Tomislav Karamarko.

I am convinced that together we will be able to overcome all difficulties and make Central Europe the most prosperous region of Europe. In this spirit, I would like to express my best wishes to HDZ on behalf of myself and Fidesz ahead of the upcoming elections!

Yours sincerely,

ORBAN Viktor
